MISS HANCOCK DEAD.

Choir Member Suffers Relapse and Valls Victim of Moningitis.

Victim of Meningitis.

Miss Annie Hancock, who has been ill ever since her return from the Portland fair, died shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, of cerebro meningitis. Miss Hancock accompanied the Ogden Tabernacle choir to Portland, and on her arrival home she was suffering from nervous prostration, which caused her parents much alarm, but by eareful nursing and medical attendance she recovered sufficiently to take short drives, but Tuesday she had a relapse, and she gradually became worse until the end came. Her death will be a shock to her many friends, among whom she was a great favorite for her lovable disposition.
